When you contact us in connection with a request for information (offline or online), to provide you with support, we collect information necessary to fulfill your request, to grant you access to the product or service, to provide you with support and to be able to contact you. For instance, we collect your name and contact information, details about your request and we may include client satisfaction survey information. We retain such information for administrative purposes, defending our rights, and in connection with our relationship with you.

We collect information primarily through your direct engagement with our platform—such as when you create a profile, join networking events, or participate in platform activities. This data helps us enhance your experience, improve our services, and generate insights that support our operations. We are committed to protecting your privacy and do not share your personal or business information with third parties for marketing or analytics purposes.

Usage Data

Usage Data is collected automatically when using the Service.

Usage Data may include information such as Your Device's Internet Protocol address (e.g. IP address), browser type, browser version, Location, the pages of our Service that You visit, the time and date of Your visit, the time spent on those pages, unique device identifiers and other diagnostic data.

When you access the services through a mobile device, we may collect limited technical information to optimize your experience. This includes your device manufacturer, API level, operating system, and a readable version of your device setup. We do not collect unnecessary personal or diagnostic data beyond what is essential for ensuring platform compatibility and performance.

We may also collect information that Your browser sends whenever You visit our Service or when You access the Service by or through a mobile device.

Tracking Technologies and Cookies

We use Cookies and similar tracking technologies to track the activity on Our Service and store certain information. Tracking technologies used are beacons, tags, and scripts to collect and track information and to improve and analyze Our Service.

You can instruct Your browser to refuse all Cookies or to indicate when a Cookie is being sent. However, if You do not accept Cookies, You may not be able to use some parts of our Service.

Cookies can be "Persistent" or "Session" Cookies. Persistent Cookies remain on your personal computer or mobile device when You go offline, while Session Cookies are deleted as soon as You close your web browser.

We use both session and persistent Cookies for the purposes set out below:

Necessary / Essential Cookies

Type: Session Cookies

Purpose: These Cookies are essential to provide You with services available through the Website and to enable You to use some of its features. They help to authenticate users and prevent fraudulent use of user accounts. Without these Cookies, the services that You have asked for cannot be provided, and We only use these Cookies to provide You with those services.

Cookies Policy / Notice Acceptance Cookies

Type: Persistent Cookies

Administered by: Us

Purpose: These Cookies identify if users have accepted the use of cookies on the Website.

Functionality Cookies

Type: Persistent Cookies

Administered by: Us

Purpose: These Cookies allow us to remember choices You make when You use the Website, such as remembering your login details. The purpose of these Cookies is to provide You with a more personal experience and to avoid You having to re-enter your preferences every time You use the Website.

Use of Your Official/Personal Data

The Company may use your official and personal data for the following purposes:

- To provide and maintain our Services, including monitoring usage to ensure performance and reliability.
- To manage your account, including registration and access to features available to registered users.
- To fulfil contractual obligations, such as processing transactions or delivering products and services you have purchased or agreed to.
- To communicate with you, including via email, phone, SMS, or in-app notifications, regarding service updates, account activity, or other relevant information.

- To process content, including data transmission, retrieval, access, and transformation necessary to deliver the service.
- To inform you about similar services, offers, or events that may be of interest, unless you have opted out of such communications.
- To provide technical support, including issue tracking, resolution, and customer service interactions.
- To manage content storage, including secure backup and deletion in accordance with your preferences or legal requirements.

Retention of Your Official/Personal Data

The Company will retain your official/personal data only for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy. This includes retaining data to comply with legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce our agreements and platform policies.

Usage data may be retained for a shorter duration, unless it is required to:

- Enhance the security of our services,
- Improve service functionality, or
- Comply with applicable legal, regulatory, or contractual requirements.

All data retention practices are governed by our internal policies and aligned with global data protection standards such as GDPR, CCPA, and other relevant frameworks. We regularly review our retention schedules to ensure data is not held longer than necessary and that user privacy is respected at every stage.

Transfer of Your Data

Your information, including official and personal data, may be processed at the Company's operating offices and in other locations where the parties involved in data processing are situated. This means your data may be transferred to—and stored on—servers located outside your state, province, country, or other jurisdiction, where data protection laws may differ from those in your region.

By submitting your information and accepting this Privacy Policy, you consent to such transfers. Furthermore, we ensure that any third parties involved in processing your data are contractually obligated to comply with applicable data protection laws in their respective jurisdictions. This includes adherence to recognized frameworks such as the GDPR, CCPA, and other relevant local privacy regulations. No data transfer will occur unless adequate safeguards are in place to protect the confidentiality, integrity, and lawful processing of your information.

Business Continuity

The Company has established Business Continuity plans to ensure the timely recovery of services and associated data in the event of a disaster or significant disruption. These plans are designed to restore critical operations within a defined recovery timeframe, typically within a few days, to minimize service interruption and data loss.

Security of Your Data

The security of your data is important to us. While no method of transmission over the Internet or electronic storage is completely secure, we implement commercially reasonable and industry-standard measures to protect your official and personal data.

All data transmitted by DIBIZ LinkApp over public networks is encrypted to prevent unauthorized access. Once your information is received, we apply strict procedures and security features to safeguard it.

To further strengthen our security posture, DIBIZ Global employs Zero Trust Network (ZTN) tools and principles. This means:

- Every access request is continuously authenticated and authorized, regardless of the user's location or network.
- Access is granted based on least privilege, ensuring users and devices only access what is necessary.
- Anomalous behaviour is actively monitored and addressed to prevent lateral movement and privilege escalation.

Additionally, all authorized DIBIZ LinkApp personnel are bound by confidentiality obligations and are prohibited from processing client data for any purpose other than as instructed by the client or as required by law.

Deletion and Return of Content

If requested prior to the termination or expiration of the service, DIBIZ LinkApp will provide the client with a copy of their content that is accessible to DIBIZ LinkApp. This will be delivered within a reasonable timeframe and in a commonly used format, subject to any applicable fees.

Clients may also request the deletion of their content, including personal or official data, at any time prior to service termination or expiration. Upon such request, DIBIZ will take reasonable steps to securely remove the specified content from its systems, unless retention is required by law or for legitimate business purposes.

Disclosure of Personal/Official Information

The Company will disclose or share your personal information, without prior notice, only when required to do so by law or under the following circumstances:

- To comply with legal obligations or respond to lawful requests, such as subpoenas or court orders.
- To protect and defend the rights, property, or safety of the Company.
- To act in urgent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of our services or the general public.

We may also disclose your personal information to third parties in the following situations:

- In connection with a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or a portion of our business or assets, in which case your data may be shared with the prospective buyer or seller.
- If DIBIZ or substantially all of its assets are acquired by a third party, personal data held by us may be transferred as part of that transaction.

Where legally permissible, DIBIZ will notify clients prior to such disclosures, unless prohibited by law or regulatory obligations.

Access to, Updating, and Non-Use of Your Personal/Official Information

You have the right to request access to the information we hold about you. If you would like a copy of your data, please contact us admin@dibizlink.com.

We are committed to ensuring that your information is accurate and up to date. If any of your details change—such as your name, email address, or contact number—please notify us by emailing admin@dibizlink.com. You may also request corrections or deletions of any inaccurate or outdated information.

You have the right to object to or restrict the collection, use, processing, or disclosure of your information as described in this Privacy Policy. We will inform you at the time of collection if your data will be used or shared for specific purposes. You may withdraw your consent at any time by contacting us at the email address above.
